Lambuth is the experience of being

Lambuth is the place we first know ourselves alone
in relationship, in groups intellectually, emotionally spiritually

Lambuth is the unfolding of maturity an endless process of becoming aware of the world, of people of God of ourselves

Lambuth is a Kaleidoscope of fragments of memories, of half-felt experiences of almost forgotten friends of almost begun acquaintances of almost realized personage

Lambuth is a Kaleidoscope of orderly development of completed courses of whole joys
of deep friendships of relationship to God
of enemies of harmony above dissonance

Lambuth is a Kaleidoscope of never constant images of enemies become friends of buildings begun and completed of engagements made and broken of confidences and betrayals of laughter: serious and light of apathy and commitment of change and stay

Lambuth is a Kaleidoscope of community of people living with people of self-realization of escape of retribution and innocence of boredom of love: marriage of locked doors and closed lives of open minds and formless opinions of profundities
of concentricity

Lambuth is the Kaleidoscope of being

FOREWORD

JUST AS A DEFINITION PRESENTS ONLY A SINGLE ASPECT OF WHAT IS DEFINED, WE TEND TO GENERALIZE AND COMPARTMENTALIZE MUCH THAT WE MEET. BUT THINGS HAVE MORE THAN ONE ASPECT, MORE THAN ONE DEFINITION. THINGS ARE KALEIDOSCOPIC. WHETHER THEY BE PEOPLE, ATTITUDES, BUILDINGS, OR SPIRIT, THEY ALWAYS HAVE SEVERAL ASPECTS, FEW OF WHICH ARE CONSTANT. LAMBUTH IS LIKE THAT. NO ONE DEFINITION OR DESCRIPTION IS ADEQUATE. THAT IS WHY WE HAVE ANNUALS: TO PRESENT THE ASPECTS OF A SCHOOL. THIS ANNUAL WILL, WE HOPE, SHOW MOST OF THE ASPECTS OF LAMBUTH THAT CAN BE CAUGHT PHOTOGRAPHICALLY. WE HOPE IT WILL CONVEY MUCH OF THE SPIRIT OF CHRISTIAN ACADEMIC COMMUNITY WHICH IS LAMBUTH. WE HOPE IT WILL SHOW YOU NOW, AND IN THE YEARS TO COME, THE EVER-CHANGING, NEVER-CONSTANT KALEIDOSCOPE: LAMBUTH COLLEGE, 1963.

DR. JAMES E. HULL

A.B., B.D., Ph.D.

We, the graduating class of 1963, dedicate the LANTERN.

To Dr. James E. Hull

Dr. Hull has been teaching at Lambuth for three years. During this time, his vitality, his intensity, and his high academic achievements have served to show that his ideals for students are the same as the ideals of the College for students. The rapid recognition of his abilities and interests by the Administration and student body are evidence of his dedication to the ideals of the College and of his concern for students as individuals.

Dr. Hull also shows an understanding and appreciation of the contributions of the past to the present. He demonstrates an enlightened confidence in man's creativity through the power of God in his life. He is concerned to teach these insights and truths to his students: that they commit themselves to an adequate Christian faith.

That Dr. Hull has succeeded is shown by the respect and appreciation given him by the student body.

Aware of the past achievements and failures of Lambuth, but also aware of the potentialities of Lambuth for the future, Dr. Hull, living wholly in the present, is worthy of being one of the primary manipulators of the Kaleidoscope that is Lambuth.

Dr. and Mrs. Hull with (from left) Alan, Ricky, and Tim.

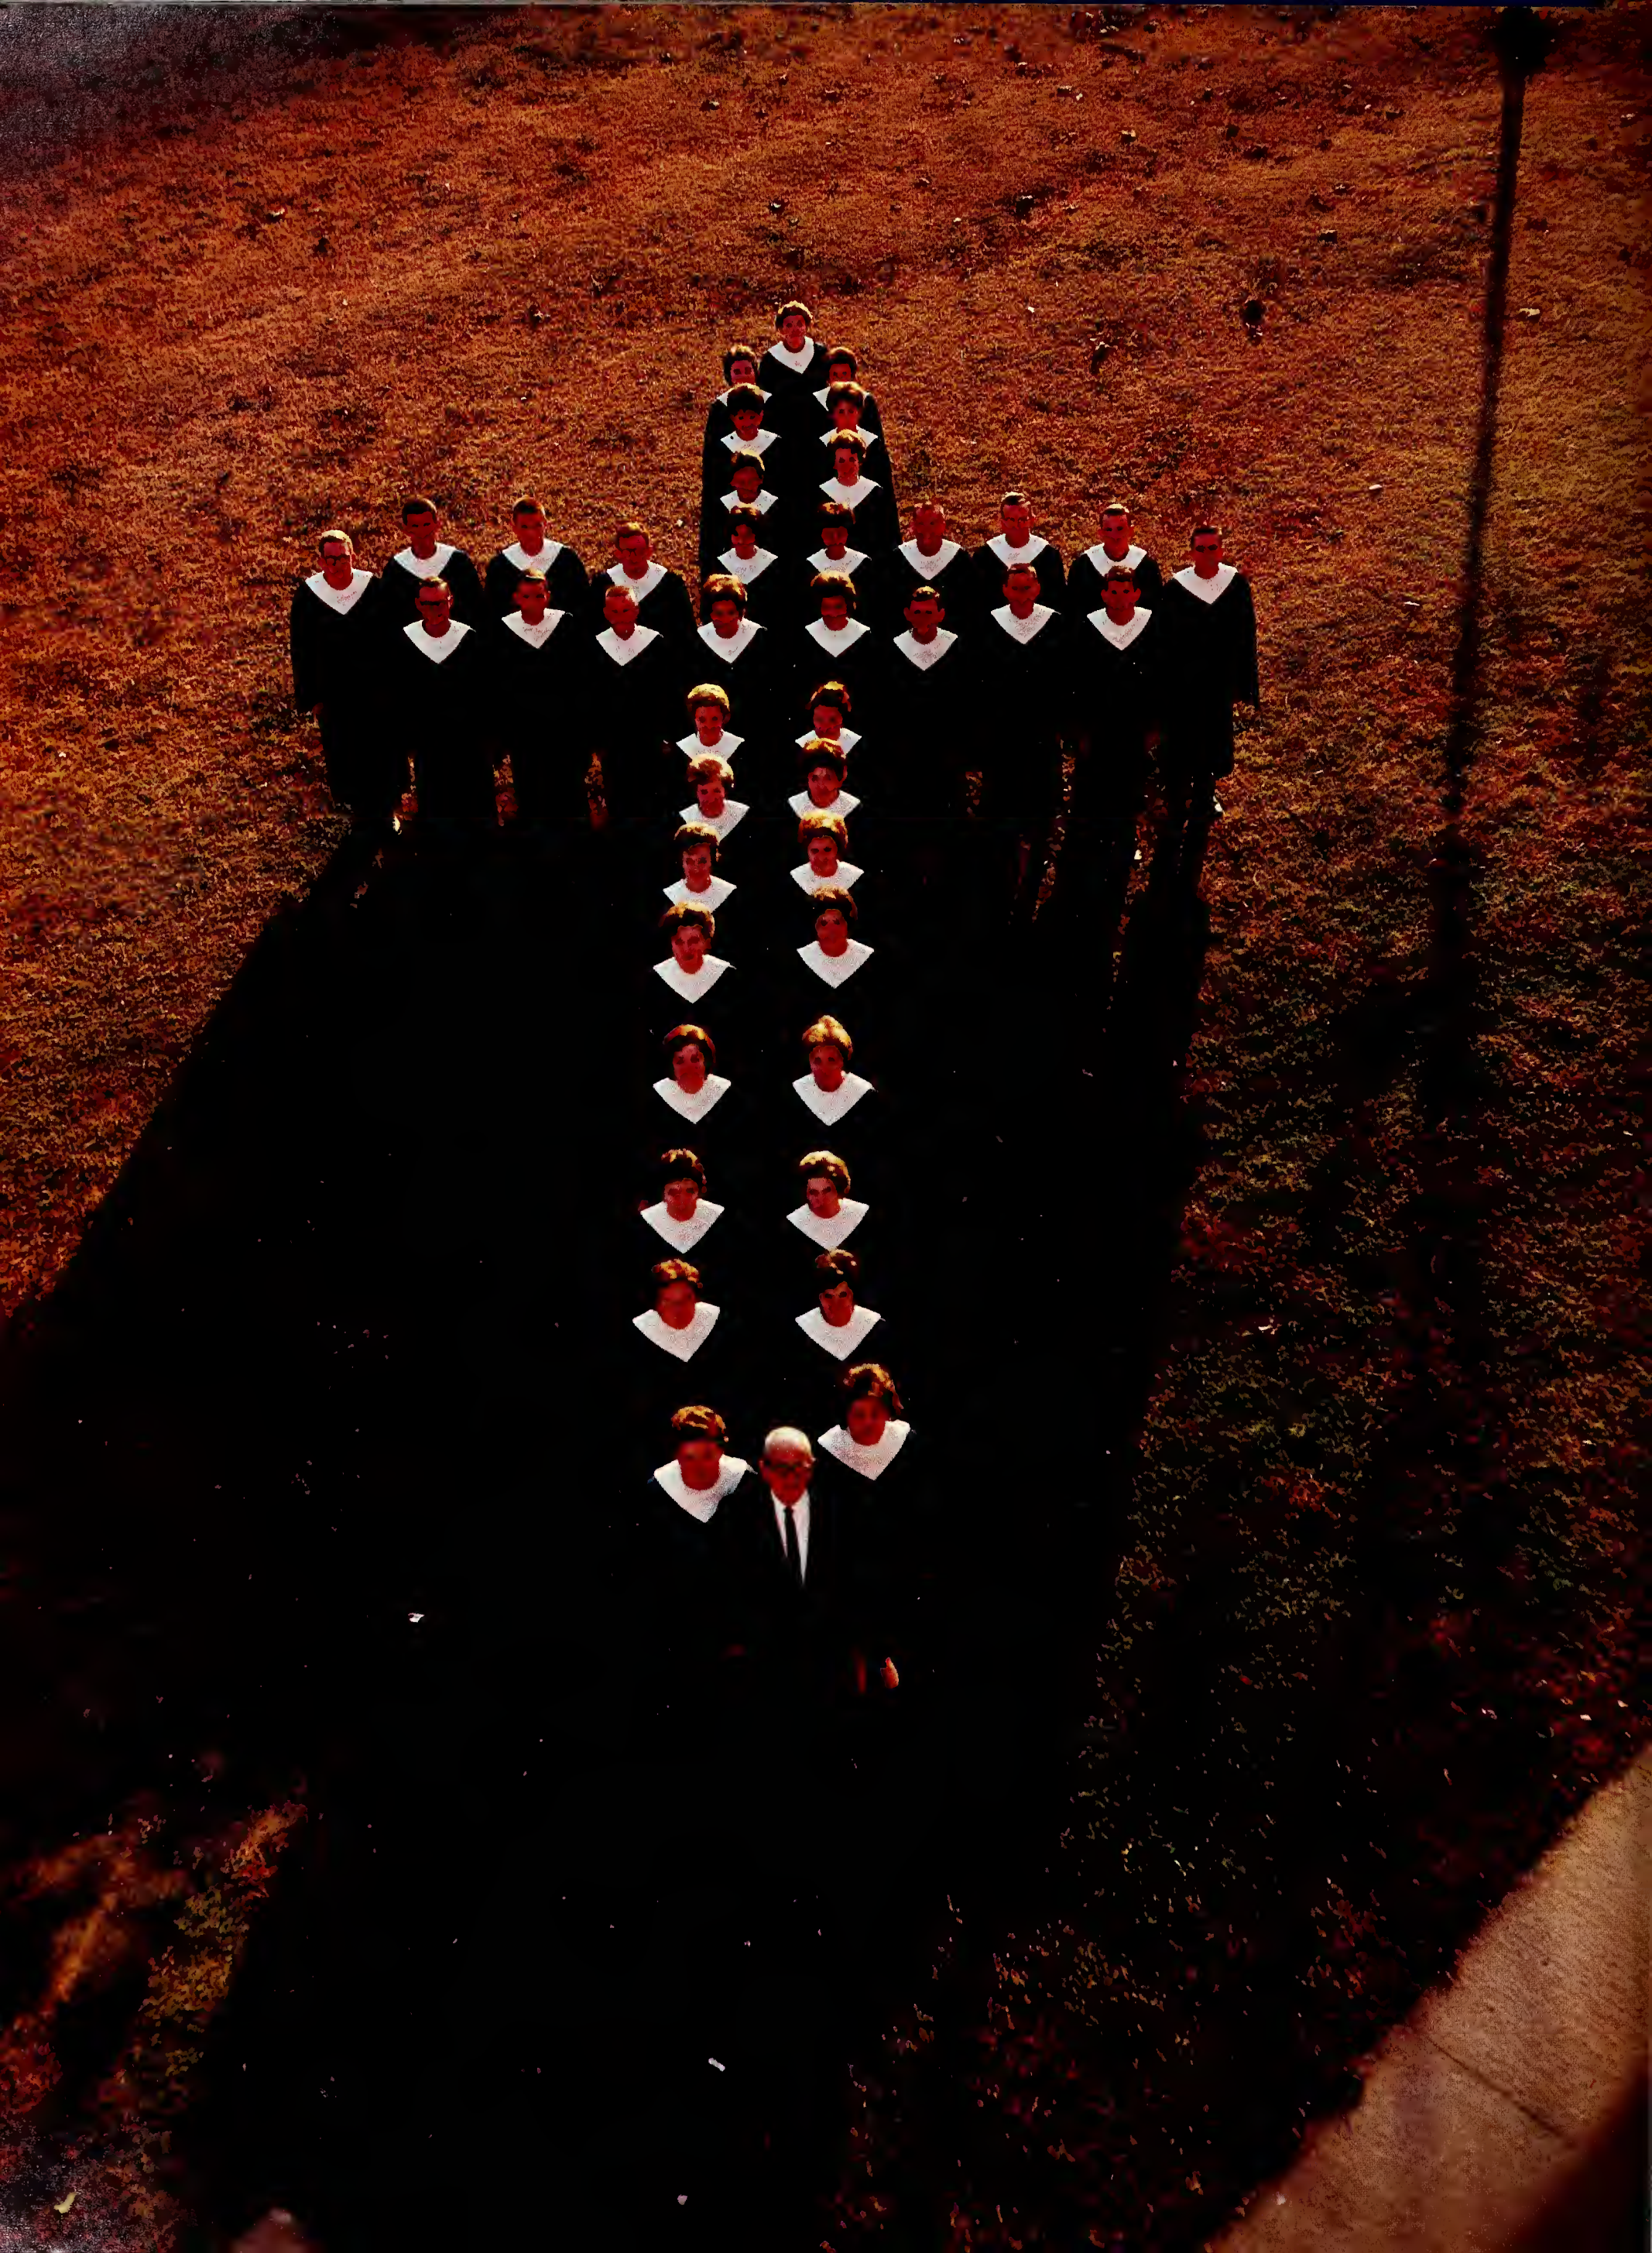
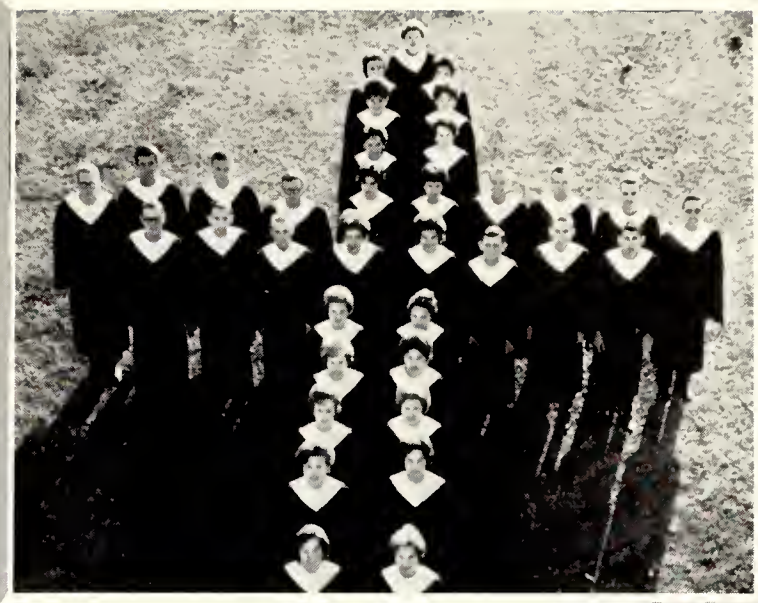
THE PARADE

Alpha Xi Delta's and Kappa Alpha's enjoy the Homecoming Parade after working hard on their prize-winning displays.





Organizations

STUDENT BODY OFFICERS

Lambuth is a Kaleidoscope of citizens, of apathy, of activity, of political parties, of factions of log-rolling, of popularity, of politics, of executive, judicial, and legislative bodies of government. The executive body is a group of elected students who appoint, who initiate, who lead. The executive body is a presiding body for the legislative council.

THE JUDICIAL COMMITTEE

The judicial body is a group for maintaining order, for conducting Freshman Initiation, for retaining the dignity of government.

THE STUDENT COUNCIL

The legislative body is a group for representing, for conducting corporate student activities, for committees and floats, for High School Senior Day, for Homecoming, for improvements in the lot of students and of the campus.

ALL-COLLEGE SOCIAL COMMITTEE

Lambuth is a Kaleidoscope of dances, of parties, of picnics, of decoration, of designs, of punch and receiving lines. One of the most active small groups on campus, the All-College Social Committee appointed by the Student Body President, has charge of all intra-college social activities. The All College Picnic, Harvest Ball, and Homecoming are the primary concerns of this committee.

SPECIAL EVENTS COMMITTEE

Lambuth is a Kaleidoscope of fun, of floats, of impressions and reputations, of alumni, of late hours of work, of moments of pride in the parade, of contest. The Special Events Committee works under the pressure of time to decorate floats, to arrange Twirp week, to help arrange Homecoming, and to conduct the Miss Lambuth Contest. This conscientious appointed group helps maintain the reputation of dignity-with-humor of Lambuth.

HANDBOOK COMMITTEE

Lambuth is a Kaleidoscope of bewildered students, of rules and improvements of rules, of stated purposes, of available information, of student knowledge of constitution and organizations. The Handbook Committee, an appointed group, prepares the Student Handbook for presentation and use each September during registration. This book contains all the information directly related to student participation on campus, not otherwise treated in the Catalogue.

INTRAMURAL SPORTS COMMITTEE

Lambuth is a Kaleidoscope of rivals, of fraternities and independents, of girls and boys, of late afternoon and early evening games, of verbal battles and broken rules, of good games and close scores, of energy, of play. The Intramural Sports Committee sets up, referees, and judges intramural games between the fraternities, sororities, the dorm and town independents, severally. Groups participating in the Intramural program play for championships in football, volleyball, speedball, ping-pong, handball, track, basketball, and others.

HARRIS HALL

Left to right, Seated: Lynn Freeman, Rosalind Goodwin, Polly Bingham, Mildred Ballinger. Standing: Peggy Counce, Sara Hines, Molly Harrison, Barbara Brown, Gail Jones, Ruth Cochran.

President: Polly Bingham
Vice-President: Lynn Freeman
Secretary: Rosalind Goodwin

THE DORMITORY COUNCILS

NEW DORM

President: Ronald Hawkins
Vice-President: Neal Rickman
Secretary: Tommy Dillingham
Treasurer: Paul Fields

SPRAGUE HALL

Left to right, Standing, Back Row: Ann Peacock, Marilyn Yates, Regina Holifield, Pam Spence, Mrs. McAdoo (Hostess). Front Row: Beverly Rike, Bernice Benard, Judy Richards. Seated: Jane Hardy, Beth Bond, Mary Lou Shelly.

President: Mary Lou Shelly
Vice-President: Beth Bond
Secretary: Bernice Benard
Treasurer: Jane Hardy

Lambuth is a Kaleidoscope of Dorms, of Freshmen and Upperclassmen, of men and women, of private rooms complete with people, room-mates, of fun and noise, of disagreements, of late nights and early mornings, of friendships and locked doors, of acceptance and rejection, of social community, of people, of relationships, of growing, of responsibility. The dorm council of each dorm—Epworth Hall, Sprague Hall, Harris Hall, and New Men's Dorm—is an agent to maintain order and to discipline inconsiderate and immature acts, a body for corporate activity in the dormitory.

EPWORTH HALL

Left to right, Seated: Ling Lung Sui, Harold Cagle, Mrs. Tena Hampton, Thomas King, Jerry Todd. Standing: James Hailey, Bob Rogers, Dave Lifsey, Bobby Norrid, Neal Caldwell, Gary Pardue, Dwight Mills.

President: Thomas Kingle
Vice-President: Harold Cagle
Secretary: Jerry Todd
Treasurer: Ling Kung Sui

PANHELLENIC COUNCIL

Lambuth is a Kaleidoscope of groups of Greeks, of fraternities, of sororities, of collective rush, of decision and disappointment, of intra-group communication. The Pan-hellenic Council maintains a basis of effective, official communication between the sororities and, also, conducts rush.

INTER-FRATERNITY COUNCIL

Lambuth is a Kaleidoscope of Greek fraternities, of rivalry, of leadership, of activity, and of apathy, of intra-group planning, of co-ordination of activities and purposes. The Inter-fraternity Council sets up rush and acts as a sounding board for difficulties arising among fraternal groups.

STUDENT CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION

Lambuth is a Kaleidoscope of religion, of worship, of discussions, of faith, and loss of faith, of regained faith, of fellowship, of religious community, of singing of inadequate appeal and indecisive approach, of duty, of deepening of understanding, of broadening of faith. The SCA meets regularly for programs of topical interest to students, usually relative to religion in our daily lives. Students and faculty both participate in these programs for the betterment of relationships between the two groups and for finer, clearer programs.

CHRISTIAN VOCATIONS ASSOCIATION

Lambuth is a Kaleidoscope of vocational certainties and uncertainties; of selection and rejection, of an inner listening for a purer vocation, of a summons into the church. One of the most active vocationally oriented groups on campus is the CVA, composed of those considering the Church as a vocation, both men and women. It seeks to provide an atmosphere of questioning and answering about the Church by means of retreats, panels, and speakers.

STUDENT NATIONAL EDUCATION ASSOCIATION

Lambuth is a Kaleidoscope of future plans, of shaping minds, of standards, of requirements, of community status, of school plans and students. The SNEA presents programs to prospective teachers concerning the obvious and the subtle characteristics of the teaching profession. It also acts as the campus agent of the National Education Association.

HOME ECONOMICS CLUB

Lambuth is a Kaleidoscope of girls, of patterns, of design and shape, of cooking, of taste and glamour, of homes to be made, of learning and love, of mothers and wives. The Home Economics Club is for all girls interested in the home and in home economics as a career. Formal and informal meetings are held, programs vary widely from parties to dressmaking.

FINE ARTS

Lambuth is a Kaleidoscope of appreciation, of color and rhythm, of form and dynamics, of exploration and development, of art and music and drama. The Fine Arts Club is primarily musical but relates all cultural media to music. The programs are of wide interest and emphasize the technical aspect of the subject for the enjoyment of the interested and informed member.

"L" CLUB

Lambuth is a Kaleidoscope of sports, of varying abilities, of star athletes, of cheering crowds and adulation, of games won and lost, of points scored. The "L" Club is an organization of lettermen, of star athletes on Lambuth's campus. Each has actively participated in varsity games and each has distinguished himself or herself in his particular area, be it basketball or cheerleading.

Left to right, Seated: Carol Chandler, Bill Mullins. Standing: Pat McAlexander, Jane Perkins, Ann Powell, Carolyn Bridges, Brooks Clayton, Ruth Ann Rodgers, Bobby Baldridge, Dave Lifsey.

Lambuth is a Kaleidoscope of dates, pictures, copy sheets, deadlines, late hours, names, classes, activities, organizations, sports, professors, students, books, stereo, friends, and good times. We, the Annual Staff, have tried to collect something of these things for you in this LANTERN.

LAMBUTH VISION

Lambuth is a Kaleidoscope of information, of opinions, of concurrence and of dissension, of extended deadlines, of student apathy, of attempts at interests, of original cartoons, of successful approaches to students. The 'Lambuth Vision' is a newspaper that is published regularly by an elected editor and his appointed staff.

OMICRON PHI TAU

Lambuth is a Kaleidoscope of honors, of merit, of effort, of degrees of honor. The most important honor attainable to a student on campus is membership in Omicron Phi Tau, honorary scholarship fraternity. This is a select group of faculty, alumni, and students.

LAMBDA IOTA TAU

Lambuth is a Kaleidoscope of languages, of majors, of minors, of English and of French, of German and of Spanish, of Latin, of literature and comment. Lambda Iota Tau is a national honorary fraternity of students majoring or minoring in English or some foreign language. This group of specialized interests meets regularly to discuss common interests in teaching, literature, and linguistics.

DELTA PSI OMEGA

Lambuth is a Kaleidoscope of dramatic energy, of diverse but basically related interests, of actors, of designers and builders, of understudy and stagehands, of the stage as a principal interest. Delta Psi Omega is an organization of earned membership for those vitally and avocationally interested in drama. This select group of dedicated and loyal 'theater people' encourage dramatic activity on campus. They promote and act in all plays presented each year.

Mr. Barney Thompson, Director. Left to right, Front Row: Ann Champion, Carol Chandler, Nancy Guthrie, Judy Bledsoe, Alicia Bivens, Kitty Council, Carolyn Bridges, Cindy Turner, Alta Burnett, Susie Moore, Sally Butler, Mary Lou Shelly, Karol Randles. Second Row: Jean Gurley, Suzanne Tipton, Marilyn Young, Nola Pafford, Dixie Stuart, Marilyn Miller, Sue Simon, Teresa Poindexter. Third Row: Betty Winsted, Virginia Jernigan, Elizabeth MacDonald, Adelfa Acosta, Mary Ransom, Diane Lacke, Peggy Whybrew, Amy Simpson, Louise Morris, Anna Mary Crowe, Mary Ann Moorehead, Nancy Bennett, Barbara Vaden. Fourth Row: Alice Jo Leggett, Jane Douglas, Joan Strickland, Kathy Brown, Ann Harding, Benny Deaton, Guy Anderson, Ronnie Pennel, Judy Murchison, Rosalind Robertson, Rita Walsh, Bettie Smith. Kay Steele. Fifth Row: Elbert Johns, David Leath, Jack Stovall, Harold Warren, Jim McCune, Fred Morris, Bill Mullins, Thomas Oakley, Joe Barnes, David Byrd, Jim Hanley, Wally Harris, Bill Rudolph, Peter Hostetler, George Hicks, Reed Coats.

LAMBUTH COLLEGE CHOIR

Lambuth is a Kaleidoscope of music, of singing, of organ and piano, of practice, of memorization, of performance, of directing, of harmony and theory, of history and technique, of rehearsal, of special band scores, of chapel programs, and of tours. The choir is open to any Lambuth student with talent and interest. The Ensemble is composed of especially experienced singers. It gives concerts in the spring on tour. The Chapel Choir is drawn from the choir class for participation in chapel programs. The Band is a young organization of great vitality. It plays vigorously for basketball games and presents occasional chapel programs.

LAMBUTH THEATRE

Lambuth is a Kaleidoscope of alter-egos, of fantasy, of drama, of comedy and tears, of tragedy and laughter, of endless rehearsals, and short performances. Lambuth Theatre is the focal organization of producing plays, four major productions each year plus several minor productions, open to any student with the time and energy required to build sets or learn lines. Lambuth Theatre produced 'Visit to a Small Planet' by Gore Vidal, 'Twelve Angry Women' by Reginald Rose, 'Our Town' by Thornton Wilder, and 'Mad Woman of Challiot' by Jean Giraudoux.

THE INTRAMURAL PROGRAM

Lambuth's Intramural program is set up to meet the needs of every student on campus. It covers such a wide variety of sports that it might interest everyone. Such activities as volleyball, handball, ping-pong, badminton, shuffleboard, baseball, softball, basketball, speedball and football are offered. Lambuth's Intramural program is under the direction of Coach Bob Shuttleworth. Schedules are set up, equipment is furnished by the school, a place is designated, and officials of the school call all games. Working along with the program is the Intramural Sports Committee.
